- After calculating the amount payable We will either:
- pay for specified Additional expenses;
 - pay the person or provider to whom You are legally liable;

- pay the cash value, repair cost or arrange replacement of Your personal items (after deducting reasonable depreciation where applicable); or
- pay You.

Additional Policy Information

- limits on the cover provided and the amounts We will pay You (including any excess that applies);
- Words With Special Meaning found in the Policy Wording on pages 27-31;
- Maximum Benefit Limits shown in the Benefits Table on page 2; and
- Policy Conditions and General Exclusions found in the Policy Wording on pages 31-59.

Change Of Terms And Conditions

From time to time and where permitted by law, We may change parts of the PDS. We will issue You with a new PDS or a Supplementary PDS or other compliant document to update the relevant information except in limited cases. Any updates which are not materially adverse to You from the view of a reasonable person deciding whether to buy this insurance, may be found at www.auspost.com.au/travelinsurance. You can obtain a paper copy of any updated information without charge by calling 1300 728 015.

Your Duty Of Disclosure

You have a legal duty of disclosure to Us whenever You apply for, or change an insurance policy.

What You Must Tell Us

You have a general duty to tell Us everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to Our decision whether to insure You, and if We do on what terms. Your general duty applies until the time You enter into the insurance policy.

However, Your duty does not require You to disclose anything:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by Us;
- that is generally well known;
- that We know or, in the ordinary course of Our business, ought to know; or
- in respect of which We have waived Your duty.

If You Do Not Tell Us

If You do not answer Our questions honestly or do not properly disclose to Us, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or may cancel Your policy. If You act fraudulently in answering Our questions or not disclosing to Us, We may refuse to pay a claim or treat Your policy as never having existed.

Your General Duty Applies To Changes

Your general duty applies in full when You change or reinstate Your insurance policy.

Your General Duty Is Limited For New Policies

When You apply for a new policy Your duty of disclosure applies, but

You do not need to tell Us something unless We specifically ask You about it.

However You must be honest in answering any questions We ask You.

You have a legal duty to tell Us anything You know, and which a reasonable person in Your circumstances would include in answering the questions.

We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure You and anyone else to be insured under the same policy, and on what terms.

Who Needs To Tell Us

It is important that You understand You are disclosing to Us and answering Our questions for Yourself and anyone else You want to be covered by the policy.

General Insurance Code Of Practice

We are signatories to the General Insurance Code of Practice (Code), which was developed by the Insurance Council of Australia to further raise standards of practice and service across the insurance industry. To obtain more information on the Code and the rights You may have under it please contact Us or visit codeofpractice.com.au.

The Amount You Pay For This Insurance

The amount We charge You for this insurance policy is the total amount of the premium that We calculate to cover the risk and any relevant government charges (such as Goods and Services Tax (GST) and stamp duty). These amounts add up to the total amount You must pay.

Once the policy is issued Your total premium and any relevant government charges are shown on the Certificate of Insurance. If You wish to change Your policy in any way please contact us.

How Various Factors Affect The Amount Payable

We consider a number of factors in calculating the total Amount Payable. The following is a guide on these key factors, how they combine and how they may impact the assessment of risk and therefore Your premium.

- Area – higher risk areas cost more.
- Departure date and trip duration – the longer the period until You depart and the longer Your trip duration, the higher the cost may be.

Cancelling Your Policy

If You cancel Your policy within a cooling-off period of 15 working days after You are issued Your Certificate of Insurance, You will be given a full refund of the premium You paid, provided You have not started Your Journey or You do not want to make a claim or exercise any other right under Your cover. After this period You can still cancel Your policy. We will refund to You a proportion of the premium for the unexpired period of cover (less any non-refundable government charges and taxes that We have paid and are not recoverable). You are not entitled to a refund if You have started Your Journey, You want to make a claim, or exercise any other right under Your cover.

To cancel Your cover please contact us by calling 1300 728 015 (within Australia) or +61 2 8907 5011 (from overseas), or email auspost@travelinsurancepartners.com.au.

How A Claim Settlement Is Calculated

When We pay a claim We consider a number of aspects in calculating the settlement. These include:

- the amount of loss, damage or liability;
- the excess
- maximum benefit limits and sub-limits;
- reasonable depreciation; and
- the terms and conditions of the policy.

The following example illustrates how We will calculate claim settlement:

- Your new video camera with an original purchase price of $4,000 is stolen from a hotel room.
- Your excess is $100.

The claim settlement would be calculated as follows:

- Consider the original purchase price of the video camera – $4,000 (no depreciation applies because the video camera was new).
- Consider the maximum benefit limit for Luggage – $7,500.
- Consider the maximum item limit payable for cameras and video equipment – $3,500. This item limit applies in this case.
- Consider the excess. There is a $100 excess, so $100 is deducted. This results in a claim settlement of $3,400 or We may choose to replace the item through a supplier of Our choice.

Policy Conditions

The excess is the first amount of a claim which We will not pay for. The excess applies to any claim arising from a separate event in respect of Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10 and 11 of the policy only.

Claim example: You have a $250 excess on Your policy. If You made a claim for $2,500 under Section 1: Overseas Medical and Dental, You already paid the expenses and We approve Your claim, We would deduct the $250 excess from the claim before We paid You. If, via Our emergency assistance team, We approved a claim directly with an overseas medical provider, We will ask You to pay the $250 excess directly to the provider at the time or request You to pay it to Us before We can finalise Your claim with the provider.

In any event, the total claim We pay is $2,250.

In some circumstances, We may impose an extra or increased excess for claims arising from Existing Medical Conditions. We will inform You in writing if this applies: These will be set out in Your Certificate of Insurance or in a letter from Our medical assessment team.

2. Limits Of Liability

- b) If You are admitted to hospital or You anticipate Your medical expenses and additional expenses are likely to exceed $500 You must phone the emergency assistance number as soon as physically possible.
- c) You must take all reasonable steps to prevent or minimise a claim.
- d) You must not make any offer, promise of payment or admit any liability without Our written consent.
- e) You must advise Us of any claim or occurrence which may give rise to a claim as soon as possible and within 60 days of the return date shown on Your Certificate of Insurance by sending a completed claim form.

- f) You must, at Your own expense, supply any documents in support of Your claim which We may request, such as original police reports, receipts, valuations, repair quotes and/or medical certificates.
- g) You must co-operate fully in the assessment or investigation of Your claim.
- h) If You make or try to make a false, exaggerated or fraudulent claim or use any false, exaggerated or fraudulent means in trying to make a claim, We will not pay Your claim, Your cover under this policy will be voided (without any return of the amount You have paid), We may report You to the appropriate authorities and You may be prosecuted.
- i) If We agree to pay a claim under Your policy We will base any claim payment on the GST inclusive costs (up to the relevant limits of liability). However, We will reduce any claim payment by any input tax credit You are, or would be, entitled to for the repair or replacement of insured property or for other things covered by this policy.

- j) We will be entitled, at Our expense, to have You medically examined or, in the event of death, a post-mortem examination carried out. We will give You or Your legal representative reasonable notice of the medical examination.

All amounts payable and claims are payable in Australian dollars at the rate of exchange applicable at the time the expenses were incurred.

7. Policy Interpretation

The policy shall be interpreted in accordance with the law of the Australian State or Territory in which it is issued.

8. Emergency Assistance

- a) Where Your claim is excluded or falls outside the policy coverage, the giving of emergency assistance will not in itself be an admission of liability.
- b) The medical standards, sanitary conditions, reliability of telephone systems and facilities for urgent medical evacuations differ from country to country. Responsibility for any loss, medical complication or death resulting from any factor reasonably beyond Our control cannot be accepted by Australia Post Corporation, Our emergency assistance, Travel Insurance Partners or Us.

9. Free Extension Of Insurance

- Your costs and expenses per Sections 1 and 2 (as applicable) incurred up to the time of Our request; and
- the lesser of:
 - an amount equivalent to the costs and expenses per Sections 1 and 2 (as applicable) that You would have incurred after Our request had You moved to another hospital, returned to Australia or been evacuated to another country as requested; or
 - Your costs and expenses actually incurred after Our request.
- d) If You are hospitalised We will pay for a share room. If a share room is not available We will, at Our discretion and that of Our medical advisors, pay to upgrade You to a single room.
- e) If You do not hold a return airline ticket an amount equal to the cost of an economy class one way ticket will be deducted from Your claim for repatriation expenses.

1. Loss, Theft Or Damage

If during the Period Of Insurance Your luggage or personal effects are lost, stolen or damaged, after deducting reasonable depreciation (where applicable and as determined by Us) We will replace, provide a replacement voucher or monetary equivalent, repair or pay

You the monetary value of the luggage or personal effects. It is Our choice which of these We do. This policy operates on an indemnity basis which means settlement of Your claim is based on the value of an item at the time of the loss and not on a 'new for old' or replacement cost basis. Reasonable depreciation takes into account the amount paid originally for the item, its age, wear and tear and advances in technology.

Our payment will not exceed the original purchase price of an item with a limit for any one item, set or pair of items including attached and unattached accessories of $500 or $3,500 for camera and video camera equipment, or $3,000 for laptop and tablet computers or $800 for mobile phones.

Phones, electrical devices, communication devices, all computers, photographic equipment, tablets, electronics equipment	2.50%	60%
All other items (not including jewellery)	1.50%	60%

Claim example

A jacket purchased for $200 was one year old when it was stolen. A claim would be calculated as follows.

Item: Jacket cost $200 (within item limit)

Depreciation: Minus $36 depreciation ($200 x 18% (i.e. 12 months x 1.5%/ month))

Excess: Minus policy excess $100 (where applicable)

Total: The total in this case is $64
